

TITLE 1: GOVERNMENT
DIVISION 6: ELECTIONS

§ 6323. Party Nominations: Duty of Commission.

Upon receipt of the certificate of nomination and petition by any political party, the Commission shall:

- (a) Determine whether all the requirements of this part have been complied with and that the signatures on the petition are the genuine signatures of the registered voters; and, if so,
- (b) Certify the names of the party's nominees as candidates and cause to have the names of the candidates appear on the general election ballot.
