

TITLE 4: ECONOMIC RESOURCES
DIVISION 8: UTILITIES

§ 8196. Renewable Energy Purchases from Commonwealth Utility Corporation Customers.

(a) Pursuant to Public Law 15-87 [4 CMC §§ 8521-8573], a group of eligible customer-generators who aggregate their entitlements to sell renewable energy to the CUC power system and co-locate the generating equipment at a site that is remote from one or more of them shall have the same rights to sell renewable energy to CUC as does an individual eligible customer-generator.

(b) A contract entered into between CUC and an eligible customer-generator (or a group of such eligible customer-generators) under Public Law 15-87 shall not be deemed to be a contract for a utility service as described in 4 CMC §§ 8112 or 8141.

(c) A customer-generator, self-generator, performance management contractor, and an entity which sells power at wholesale to CUC shall not be included in the definition of public utilities under 4 CMC § 8402(f) (defining "public utility" under the Public Utilities Commission law (P.L. 15-35)).
