

TITLE 4: ECONOMIC RESOURCES
DIVISION 9: LABOR

§ 9331. Modification of Awards.

Upon his own initiative, or upon the application of any party in interest, on the ground of a change in conditions or because of a mistake in a determination of fact by the administrator, the administrator may, at any time prior to one year after the date of the last payment of compensation, whether or not a compensation order has been issued, or at any time prior to one year after the rejection of a claim, review a compensation case in accordance with the procedure prescribed in 4 CMC § 9328, and in accordance with the provisions of such section issue a new compensation order which may terminate, continue, reinstate, increase or decrease such compensation or award of compensation. Such new order shall not affect any compensation previously paid, except that an award increasing the disability benefits may be made effective from the date of injury, and any payment made prior to the time of the award in excess of such decreased rate shall be deducted from any unpaid disability benefits, in such manner and by such method as may be determined by the administrator with the approval of the commission.
