

TITLE 5: UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE
DIVISION 2: SALES

§ 2509. Risk of Loss in the Absence of Breach.

(1) Where the contract requires or authorizes the seller to ship the goods by carrier:

(a) If it does not require him to deliver them at a particular destination, the risk of loss passes to the buyer when the goods are duly delivered to the carrier even though the shipment is under reservation (5 CMC § 2505); but

(b) If it does require him to deliver them at a particular destination and the goods are there duly tendered while in the possession of the carrier, the risk of loss passes to the buyer when the goods are there duly so tendered as to enable the buyer to take delivery.

(2) Where the goods are held by a bailee to be delivered without being moved, the risk of loss passes to the buyer:

(a) On his receipt of a negotiable document of title covering the goods;

(b) On acknowledgment by the bailee of the buyer's right to possession of the goods; or

(c) After his receipt of a non-negotiable document of title or other written direction to deliver, as provided in 5 CMC § 2503(4)(b).

(3) In any case not within subsection (1) or (2) of this section, the risk of loss passes to the buyer on his receipt of the goods if the seller is a merchant; otherwise the risk passes to the buyer on tender of delivery.

(4) The provisions of this section are subject to contrary agreement of the parties and to the provisions of this division on sale on approval (5 CMC § 2327) and on effect of breach on risk of loss (5 CMC § 2510).
