

TITLE 6: CRIMES AND CRIMINAL PROCEDURE
DIVISION 4: DISPOSITION OF OFFENDERS

§ 4111. Community Service.

In any case in which a court is authorized to impose sentence of imprisonment, the court may, if it deems best, instead of imposing imprisonment, sentence the accused to perform hard labor or such other community service in accordance with his or her physical ability on any public project for a period not exceeding that for which imprisonment might be imposed.

Source: PL 3-71, § 1 (§ 1211).