

TITLE 6: CRIMES AND CRIMINAL PROCEDURE
DIVISION 4: DISPOSITION OF OFFENDERS

§ 4298. Program Completion.

(a) Upon satisfactory completion of the requirements of the Program, the Office of Adult Probation shall provide notice to the Criminal Division of the Attorney General's Office. The Criminal Division shall thereupon file a notice of dismissal with the Court, if charges have already been filed. If charges have not previously been filed, upon receipt of the notice of completion from the Office of Adult Probation, the Criminal Division of the Attorney General's Office shall close out its case file, and may not reinstate prosecution or re-file the criminal charges.

(b) In the event that a participant in the Adult Diversion Program fails to complete all of the program requirements in a timely fashion, or violates any term or condition of the probation agreement or his supervision, the Office of Adult Probation shall provide timely notice of noncompliance to the Criminal Division, which shall commence or reinstate prosecution.
