

TITLE 6: CRIMES AND CRIMINAL PROCEDURE
DIVISION 6: CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

§ 6206. Effect of Irregularities in Proceedings to Issue Search Warrant.

The proceedings before a court or an official authorized to issue a search warrant may not be invalidated, nor any finding, order, or sentence set aside for any error or omission, technical or otherwise, occurring in the proceedings, unless in the opinion of the reviewing authority or a court hearing the case on appeal or otherwise it shall appear that the error or omission has prejudiced the accused.
