

TITLE 7: CIVIL PROCEDURE
DIVISION 2: ACTIONS AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

§ 2214. Waiver.

The Commonwealth, and any public corporation, board, or commission organized and existing under and pursuant to the laws of the Commonwealth, may waive the provisions of 7 CMC § 2253 in a particular case, and may demand a trial by jury to the same extent as a private party would be entitled to do so. Nothing in this section, however, shall be construed as waiving any existing immunity on the part of the government, or any such public corporation, board, or commission, from liability for court costs, including but not limited to jury fees.

Source: PL 4-72, § 4.