

TITLE 7: CIVIL PROCEDURE
DIVISION 2: ACTIONS AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

§ 2502. Limitation of Twenty Years.

- (a) The following actions shall be commenced only within 20 years after the cause of action accrues:
- (1) Actions upon a judgment.
 - (2) Actions for the recovery of land or any interest therein.
- (b) If the cause of action first accrued to an ancestor or predecessor of the person who presents the action, or to any other person under whom he or she claims, the 20 years shall be computed from the time when the cause of action first accrued.

Source: 6 TTC § 302.