

TITLE 8: FAMILY LAW AND PROBATE
DIVISION 1: DOMESTIC RELATIONS

§ 1521. Interstate Rendition; Authority of Governor.

The Governor may:

(a) Demand of the governor of another state the surrender of a person found in that state who is charged criminally in the Commonwealth with the failure to abide by an order of a court ordering him to provide for the support of any person; or

(b) Surrender on demand by the governor of another state a person found in the Commonwealth who is charged criminally in that state with failing to provide for the support of any person. Provisions for extradition of criminals not inconsistent with this chapter apply to the demand even if the person whose surrender is demanded was not in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the crime and has not fled from it. The demand, the oath, and any proceedings for extradition pursuant to this section need not state or show that the person whose surrender is demanded has fled from justice or that at the time of the commission of the crime the person was in the demanding state.

Source: 39 TTC § 351.

Commission Comment: For provisions relating to extradition of criminals, see 6 CMC § 6901 et seq.