

TITLE 8: FAMILY LAW AND PROBATE
DIVISION 1: DOMESTIC RELATIONS

§ 1541. Information Agency; Efforts of Attorney General to Locate Obligors.

(a) The Attorney General's office is designated as the information agency under this chapter. It shall:

(1) Compile a list of any court and its address in the Commonwealth having jurisdiction under this chapter and transmit the same to the state information agency of every other state which has adopted this or a substantially similar law;

(2) Maintain a register of such lists of courts received from other states and transmit copies thereof promptly to the court in the Commonwealth having jurisdiction under this chapter;

(3) Distribute copies of this chapter and any amendments thereto and a statement of their effective dates to all other state information agencies; and

(4) Forward to the court in the Commonwealth which has jurisdiction over the obligor or the obligor's property petitions, certificates, and copies of the act it receives from courts or information agencies of other states.

(b) If the Attorney General does not know the location of the obligor or the obligor's property in the Commonwealth, the Attorney General shall use all means at his or her disposal to obtain this information, including but not limited to the examination of any official records, as the Attorney General may deem appropriate.
