

TITLE 8: FAMILY LAW AND PROBATE
DIVISION 1: DOMESTIC RELATIONS

§ 1557. Appeals.

If the Attorney General is of the opinion that a support order is erroneous and presents a question of law warranting an appeal in the public interest, the Attorney General may:

- (a) Perfect an appeal to the proper appellate court if the support order was issued by a court of the Commonwealth, or
- (b) If the support order was issued in another state, cause the appeal to be taken in the other state. In either case, expenses of appeal may be paid on his order from funds appropriated for his office.

Commission Comment: While preparing this division for enactment in 1983 as part of the original Commonwealth Code, the Commission opted to delete 39 TTC § 427, relating to the application of this chapter within the districts of the Trust Territory. For purposes of applying this chapter, it would seem that the former Trust Territory or any of its successor entities are to be treated as if each was another state. See 8 CMC § 1512(m).
