

TITLE 8: FAMILY LAW AND PROBATE
DIVISION 2: PROBATE LAW AND PROCEDURE

§ 2504. Objections.

Any person upon whom demand is made to transfer money or other property under the terms of the order who denies the right of petitioner or other transferee to receive the same shall, within ten days of the demand being made upon him to transfer the money or other property, file his objection in the court setting forth the grounds that entitle him to retain possession of it. Upon the filing of the objection, the court shall, after notice to the petitioner or other transferee and objector, schedule the matter for hearing and make findings and enter orders as justice requires.
