Third Day, Fourth Regular Session

September 15, 2016

H. B. No. 19-185

AN ACT

TO AMEND 6 CMC §107 BY ALLOWING THE PROSECUTION FOR SEXUAL CRIMES COMMITTED AGAINST PERSONS UNDER THE AGE
OF 18 TO COMMENCE AT ANY TIME.

Be it enacted by the Nineteenth Northern Marianas Commonwealth Legislature:

1 Section 1. Findings and Purpose. The Legislature finds that sexual crimes
2 committed against persons under the age of eighteen (18) is a very sensitive issue that not
3 only affects the victims, but the overall outlook of our great Commonwealth. The Legislature
4 also finds that the time limitation for sex crimes committed against persons under the age of 5 eighteen (18) shall initiate until the alleged victim reaches the specified age. Due to the 6 victim's fear of revealing such disturbing information, the time limitation as set by our
7 current statute will prove to be detrimental for after the exhaustion of such time limitation,
8 the allegations shall become null and void and cannot be prosecuted. The Legislature finds
9 that removing the time limitation will prove to be beneficial for it will give the victims,
10 regardless of age and duration since the alleged incident, the opportunity to build their
11 confidence and report such incidents knowing that the prosecution can begin at any time
12 regardless of the time duration since the victim reached the age of eighteen (18).

HOUSE BILL 19-185

1 Therefore, the purpose of this Act is to amend 6 CMC §107 by allowing the
2 prosecution for sexual crimes committed against persons under the age of 18 to commence at 3 any time.

4 Section 2. Amendment. 6 CMC §107 is hereby amended to read as follows:

5 “§ 107. Time Limitations for Beginning Prosecutions.

6 (a) A prosecution for murder and for any crime involving sexual contact,
7 physical or sexual abuse, exhibitionism or sexual exploitation, committed against a
8 person under the age of 18 may be commenced at any time.

9 (b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, prosecutions for offenses
10 other than traffic offenses are subject to the following time limitations:

11 (1) A prosecution for an offense which is punishable by imprisonment
12 for five years or more must be commenced within four years after it is 13 committed.

14 (2) A prosecution for an offense which is punishable by imprisonment
15 for six months or less, or by a fine only must be commenced within one year
16 after it is committed.

17 (3) A prosecution for any other offense must be commenced within 18 two years after it is committed.

19 (c) If the time limitation set forth in subsection (b) of this section has expired,
20 a prosecution may nevertheless be commenced for:

21 (1) Any offense, an element of which is either fraud or a breach of 22 fiduciary obligation, within one year after discovery of the offense by an
23 aggrieved party or by a person who has a legal duty to represent an aggrieved
24 party and who is himself not a party to the offense, but in no case shall this 25 provision extend the period of limitation otherwise applicable by more than 26 three years.

27 (2) Any offense based on misconduct in office by a public officer or 28 employee at any time when the defendant is in the same public office or 29 employment or within two years thereafter.

(3) Any offense for which a pending prosecution results in a dismissal without prejudice within one year from the date of such dismissal.

(4) Any offense involving or against the former Saipan Credit Union, or its depositors, shareholders, investors, or guarantors on account of or in connection with their interest therein, within 10 years after it was committed.

(d) The time limitation does not run:

(1) During any time when the accused is absent from this jurisdiction or has no reasonably determinable place of abode or work within this jurisdiction; or

(2) During any time when a prosecution against the accused is pending in this jurisdiction.

(e) A prosecution is commenced either when an information or complaint is filed, or when an arrest warrant or other process is executed without unreasonable delay.”

Section 3. Severability. If any provisions of this Act or the application of any such provision to any person or circumstance should be held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this Act or the application of its provisions to persons or circumstances other than those to which it is held invalid shall not be affected thereby.

Section 4. Savings Clause. This Act and any repealer contained herein shall not be construed as affecting any existing right acquired under contract or acquired under statutes repealed or under any rule, regulation, or order adopted under the statutes. Repealers contained in this Act shall not affect any proceeding instituted under or pursuant to prior law. The enactment of the Act shall not have the effect of terminating, or in any way modifying, any liability, civil or criminal, which shall already be in existence on the date this Act becomes effective.
