THIS MATTER came before the court on June 22, 2006 at 1:30 p.m. for a Review Hearing in Courtroom 223A. The government was represented by Assistant Attorney General John Aguon. The defendant appeared Pro Se.

For cause shown and based on the probation expiration on November 30, 2001 for Traffic Case No. 00-05940; September 1, 2001 for Traffic Case No.'s 97-09332; 96-07368; 96-08608 and 95-07889,

The court closed this case along with the admonition to Defendant in court that his substantial non-compliance with the terms and conditions of his probation makes him an extremely poor candidate for probation and that this fact be considered if

1 and when he appears in court again. Although the government did 2 move to revoke his probation during the probationary period, for 3 some reason it did not go forward. The time has passed to pursue 4 any further process in this matter and the court must now close 5 this Defendant's several traffic cases with a write off of the 6 substantial fines and obligations owed to the government.
